About Us

SOTRANE Publishers looks to gain and maintain strong affiliations in the literary industry by being innovative, forward-looking and customer-oriented company. The Publishing firm is a member of Zambia Reprographics Rights Association (ZARRSO).

Since 2018, SOTRANE Publishers has been committed to long-term business and social goals. The company takes its social responsibilities seriously and aims to create books that help the readers achieve their goals and better their prospects – be it social, professional, commercial, or other. We publish high quality, informative and inspiring titles in a diverse segment of book trade ranging from self-help to health and family relations; career to business management; women's to children's interests and cookery; educational and professional books and many other areas.

Sotrane Publishers is making an important contribution with potential for enormous growth, to Zambia and the general development of Africa. Just one highlight in the existence of Sotrane Publishers is the production of the book 'KOKO Grows Food', which received an award from the UN SDG Book Club Africa Chapter on World Book and Copyright Day, 23 April, 2021.
